

ONDAMED® approved by Health Canada

Dear friends and colleagues from around the world,

We are excited to announce that Ondamed Inc. has received from Health Canada the medical device licence for its therapeutic technology, ONDAMED, on November 14, 2011.

The time is now. Evolve your practice to offer a health solution to the globally ongoing raising of human awareness. The power lies in the interaction of electro-magnetism. Electro-magnetism is a carrier of languages and not only with the spoken word or sound, but also with the interaction of biological processes. One may consider electro-magnetism the platform of our sub-conscious.

ONDAMED's electro-magnetic language is highly specific and with its unique feedback method, you are able to access AND stimulate hidden areas linked to the patient's pathology. Hidden areas include inflammation, infection, degenerated tissue, scars, and unresolved emotional trauma stored on a cellular level.

Are you ready to speak a new and powerful language?
